

45 Years Before the Public. THE GENUINE Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia, and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

ACUTE AND FEVER.
No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after, taking quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequalled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.
The genuine are never sugar-coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid with the impression, McLANE'S LIVER PILLS. Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS.

Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa. The market being full of imitations of the name McLANE, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

THE DEMOCRATIC PROGRAMME.

The democratic state committee held a meeting at Nashville, last Friday, and determined to hold two state conventions this year.

The first one will be held June 22nd, and will select delegates to the Cincinnati convention and make up the electoral ticket. The second will be held August 10th, and will nominate a candidate for governor.

The reason for holding two conventions is obvious, and, from their stand-point, the plan is a wise one. It is no longer a question that there are two distinct factions in the Democratic party in this State.

One faction, and much the larger one as we believe, is in favor of the repudiation of a large proportion of the state debt. The other is composed of state credit men. It happens that the state credit men have control of the machine. Our information is that all the members of the state committee are anti-repudiationists.

The national democratic convention of this year will doubtless go squarely back on other national democratic conventions and adopt a pretty sound platform, so far as it relates to the public finances. They have tried unlimited greenbacks and thrusts at the credit of the nation, until they have been convinced that such lunacy will not win. Hence, we say, this year they will take advanced grounds on that question.

Knowing this, the democratic committee of this state have wisely postponed action on state questions until after the national convention has been held. Then they will say to the men who are disposed to follow Savage, Wilson & Co., "we must put ourselves in line with the national democracy, and, to do that, we must keep up the credit of the state by paying our honest debts." Such an argument will doubtless have great weight with such democrats as attend state conventions, and it may be the means of keeping down the repudiationists for a time.

In the mean time, unless the convention to be held May 5th shall have decided otherwise, the republicans will have nominated their candidate for governor, and this will prove a strong argument with timid democrats who train with the repudiation, against doing anything that might endanger the success of the party. The main thing is to avoid a split in the party, and the managers think that they may avoid that by leading for harmony between the national and state platforms, as far as they relate to financial questions, and also by holding up the fact that a republican is already in the field for governor, with a certainty of election, in case there is a division in the ranks of the democracy.

The Memphis Appeal is very outspoken against Samuel J. Tilden. It says:

"The effort of this unscrupulous demagogue to foist himself upon the democratic party is characterized by all the low and dirty means which have signalized his political career. The Appeal has never bolted from the regular nomination of the party, but if such a creature as Tilden should be forced upon the democratic party, the Appeal will confer with the one hundred democrats of Memphis who have expressed a fixed and unalterable determination never to vote for Tilden under any circumstances. This feeling pervades the democratic party in every section of the state, and with the nomination of Tilden, Tennessee may be safely put down for Grant."

Now, suppose that Tilden gets the nomination at Cincinnati, what a fine dish of crow the Appeal will have. We commend to the words of the Jackson Tribune and Sun, who says of Tilden:

"The people can not well be convinced that he is any worse now than he was in '76, when the men who now slander him were loudest in his praise. He is too old to grow in wickedness, and if he is the monster that his enemies now paint him, he was none the less a monster in '76."

"The truth is, Mr. Tilden is neither better nor worse than when most Democrats swore he was the greatest defender of the age, and abuse of him now is as unjust as it is unwise."

We agree with our Jackson contemporary, that Tilden is no worse than he was in 1876.

We clip the following from the financial article in one of the leading New York papers:

"Memphis and Charleston stock is still the topic of interest, especially as the situation seems to have been reversed. Last week, and for months past, the management of the Memphis and Charleston had been fighting for the control of the Memphis and Little Rock. Now, the latter road seems to be trying to get control of the former. At all events, it is known that for more than ten days past Memphis and Charleston stock has been bought up by parties operating in the interest of the management of the Memphis and Little Rock. This has naturally given a new impetus to the stock, and sales have been made at 25% an advance of 500 per cent. over its market value four months ago. Nothing definite can be learned in regard to the precise purpose of this movement, as those who are in the secret keep it religiously. The conjecture made above is founded on that course of reasoning known as 'putting this and that together.' That there are schemes on foot for getting control of one road or the other is beyond all doubt, but time alone can show the result. It is only fact known so far as that somebody has bought up all the Memphis and Charleston stock on the market."

If the Memphis and Little Rock management should obtain control of the Memphis and Charleston road, it would be a rather damaging blow at the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad. It would suffer materially from such a combination.

The awards in the regular mail lettings were completed at Washington last Saturday and will be assigned by the postmaster general sent out by tomorrow's mail. The service is increased 15 to 30 per cent., but the bids are from 5 to 15 per cent. less than before.

Republican State Convention.

OFFICE STATE REP. EX. COM.,
NASHVILLE, TENN., Feb. 9, 1880.

A Convention of Republicans of Tennessee will be held at Nashville, in the hall of the House of Representatives, at 12 o'clock, p. m., on May 5th, next, for the purpose of naming a candidate for Governor of Tennessee, and to select twenty-four delegates to attend the National Republican Convention, which meets at Chicago, Ill., on June 2nd. Also, to transact such other business as may come before it.

The ratio of representation in our State Convention will be one delegate from each county in the State, and one additional delegate from each county.

The very two hundred votes, or fractional part of two hundred over one hundred, cast for the Republican candidates for Electors in 1876.

JOSEPH B. DILLIN,
Chairman State Rep. Ex. Com.

Garcelon's Message from the People.

From the Portland Advertiser (Rep.).

In concluding his speech at Auburn, Saturday evening, ex-Governor Garcelon said: "Your municipal elections will occur next Monday. If you believe that I have done right, have fearlessly performed my duty by strictly following the law and constitution, vote the democratic ticket. If not, vote the republican ticket." The answer comes in a republican majority of 459. The five cities which were disfranchised by Governor Garcelon and council held elections Monday. Portland reports a republican majority for mayor of 1,231, against a democratic majority of 40 last year. Lewiston shows a republican gain of 130. Rockland, which elected a republican mayor last spring, on the third trial, by a majority of 55, now doubles the majority, and the republican ward tickets are chosen in every ward but one. In Saco, every ward is republican; a year ago the democrats carried two wards. In Bath the democrats made no nomination, and General Hyde is elected mayor. Coming next to the towns whose representatives were counted out we find Skowhegan electing Mr. Steward, the representative, first selectman, 401 to 136. Farmington, which was fusion last spring, now turns up with a republican majority. Fairfield elects the whole republican ticket. Norway shows a republican gain of 40. Deering barely elected a republican representative, who was deprived of his seat in the fusion legislature; and Deering now, for the first time since the town was incorporated, elects a full board of republican officers.
